State Association: Oregon

DRESS CODE FOR ICDC

Approved by the DECA Board of Directors, August, 2009

From the opening session until the end of the closing session, students, advisors and professionals shall adhere to the following Dress Code requirements. It is the Chapter Advisor's responsibility to see that their students, professionals and themselves comply with the rules established for proper dress code. Advisors should monitor their students' dress at all functions. Professional business dress should be worn to all events where a judge or observer may be in attendance. This will include participating events as well as testing. Business representatives, press personnel, hotel staff and guests will be seeing DECA's finest members—show them a professional business image.

Competitors must wear an official DECA blazer during interaction with judges. While you do not have to wear an official DECA blazer during briefing and testing, professional business dress is required.

AN OFFICIAL DECA BLAZER IS REQUIRED TO RECEIVE RECOGNITION/AN AWARD ON STAGE.

ATTENDANCE

This is to certify that _____ has my permission to attend the above named DECA activity. I also do hereby on behalf of him/her absolve and release the school officials, the DECA chapter advisors and the assigned chartered association DECA staff from any claims for personal injuries or illness which might be sustained while he/she is en-route to and from or during the DECA sponsored activity.

I understand that DECA activities may occur as late as midnight and that the host city has a curfew of 11:00PM. I am authorizing my child's DECA advisor and/or chaperone to take my place in accompanying the DECA member for a designated period of time and purpose within a specified area. Furthermore, I understand that after the curfew, my child may travel directly to the hotel without detour or stop from an official DECA activity with the supervision of the DECA advisor.

PUBLICITY

I grant permission to Oregon DECA and its staff/contractors, State Department of Education, and sponsors/supporters to use the above delegate's name and likeness (including photographs, video footage, silhouettes, and audio clips) in publications, productions, promotions and on websites for informational, promotional and other related purposes without further consideration, and acknowledge the right of Oregon DECA to crop, treat, edit, or otherwise modify the photographs, video footage, silhouettes, and audio clips at their discretion.

EMERGENCY

I authorize the advisor to secure the services of a physician or hospital, and to incur the expenses for necessary services in the event of accident or illness, and I will provide for the payment of these costs:
